

Accommodation and Welfare Policy

Care for younger student under 18 years

Brisbane Adventist College is a CRICOS-registered provider which enrolls younger students under 18 years of age.

As part of its registration obligations Brisbane Adventist College must satisfy Commonwealth and state legislation, as well as any other regulatory requirements, relating to child welfare and protection for any overseas student enrolled who is under 18 years of age.

These obligations include ensuring that all overseas students under 18 years of age are given age- and culturally-appropriate information on:

- Who to contact in emergency situations, including contact number/s of a nominated staff member, and
- How to seek assistance and report any incident or allegations or allegations involving actual or alleged sexual, physical or other abuse.

Brisbane Adventist College has documented procedures relating to child welfare and safety, and will implement these procedures if there are any concerns for the welfare of a student under 18 years of age.

Accommodation and care options for overseas students under 18 years

Brisbane Adventist College approves the following accommodation and care options for overseas students:

1. The student will live with a parent or relative approved by the Department of Home Affairs (Immigration).

In this Case:

- i. The College does not provide a welfare letter (CAAW) via PRISMS. The student's family completes a Form 157N and provides proof of relationship to the Department of Home Affairs (Immigration) at the time of the visa application for approval of these arrangements. The Department of Home Affairs (Immigration) must also approve any further change of welfare arrangements.
- ii. If the adult responsible for the welfare, accommodation and other support arrangements for a student under 18 years holds a Student Guardian Visa \(subclass 590\) all obligations and conditions of this visa must be met, including:
  - a) Not leaving Australia without the nominating student unless there are compassionate and compelling circumstances and the College has first approved alternative welfare and accommodation arrangements for the student for the adult's period absence, and

- b) advising the Department of Home Affairs (Immigration) of any change of address, passport or other changes of circumstances.

Brisbane Adventist College requires holders of Student Guardian Visas to:

- i. maintain Overseas Visitor Health Cover for themselves and any dependent children living with them in Australia
- ii. immediately advise the School of any change to address or contact details
- iii. immediately advise the College if there are any compassionate or compelling reasons to travel overseas or to be at home for an extended period of time to care for the student

If there is a valid reason for travelling overseas, and the College is able to approve alternative accommodation and care arrangements for the student for the period of student guardian visa holder's absence, the College will provide documentation approving temporary care arrangements for the student to the student's guardian and for the Department of Home Affairs (Immigration) via PRISMS.

If there is NOT a valid reason for travelling overseas, or if the College is not able to approve alternative accommodation and care arrangements for the student for the period of student guardian visa holder's absence, the student will need to travel overseas with the holder of the student guardian visa. In this case, the College will advise if compulsory attendance requirements will or will not be affected by the student's absence.

2. The student will live in College approved accommodation and welfare arrangements and Brisbane Adventist College will generate the welfare letter (CAAW) via PRISMS to accompany the student's Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE).

arrangements and has taken the required actions after not being able to contact the student.

Any accommodation, welfare and other support arrangements for the student must be approved by Brisbane Adventist College, including arrangements provided by third parties.

Accommodation and care arrangements are checked prior to approval and at least every six months thereafter to ensure they are appropriate to the student's age and needs.

Any adults involved in or providing accommodation and welfare arrangements to the student have a blue card as appropriate <https://www.bluecard.qld.gov.au/>

Any changes to approved arrangements must also be approved by the College.

If a student cannot be located and the College has concerns for his/her welfare, the College will contact the student's parents/legal guardians and notify the police and any other relevant authorities.

If a student for whom the College has issued a CAAW refuses to maintain approved arrangements, the College will report this to the Department Home Affairs (Immigration) and advise the student to contact the Department of Home Affairs (Immigration) office addresses at: <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/about/contact/offices/-locations/australia>

In the event of a significant or critical welfare issue involving the student, and if determined necessary by the school, a parent, legal guardian or approved relative agrees to travel to a designated location within 5 days to assume care of the student until the situation has been resolved to the College's satisfaction.

If a parent/nominated guardian wishes to assume welfare responsibility, the parent/nominated guardian must notify the College as soon as practicable of their intentions and must provide the College with written evidence of a guardian visa grant.

3. For College vacation periods, students under 18 years of age for whom the College has issued a CAAW will:
  - i. return home to parents, or;
  - ii. continue to live in/is placed in Homestay arranged and approved by the College, or
  - iii. apply for approval to spend vacation with relatives or friend's family, or
  - iv. apply to attend a supervised excursion, camp etc..., if all requirements are met in order to attain College approval.

4. It is a condition of enrolment that students over 18 years or older maintain College approved accommodation arrangements while still studying at Brisbane Adventist College. Accommodation options for students 18 years and older include:
  - i. Homestay Program operated by Brisbane Adventist College; and
  - ii. Private accommodation and care arrangements approved by the College, which meet all requirements under relevant state and commonwealth legislation.

5. For College vacation periods, the following accommodation options are available to students 18 years or older:
- i. Student returns home to parents;
  - ii. Student continues to live in/is placed in Homestay, details of which are recorded by the College;
  - iii. Student may spend vacation with friends or relatives provided details are given; or
  - iv. Student may attend a supervised excursion, camp etc. provided details are given

6. Homestay/private accommodation arrangements at Brisbane Adventist College:

The homestay/private accommodation arrangements operated by Brisbane Adventist College meet Queensland legislative requirements for child protection as well as Standard 5 of the 2018 National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students.

This include:

- i. Continuous dates for approved welfare arrangements
- ii. Documented procedures for checking suitability of accommodation, support and general welfare arrangements before a student is placed in an approved arrangement, and at least every six months thereafter, covering
  - o Guidelines for selecting, screening and monitoring each family and ensuring the family can provide age appropriate care and facilities for the duration of the student's enrolment at the College
  - o Criteria about accommodation services to be provided, and contract for arrangements about providing accommodation services.
  - o Orientation program for families new to provision of homestay services
  - o Compliant Homestay risk management strategy reviewed annually, undertaken by College/operator of the homestay program
- iii. Blue cards as required for adults living in the homestay/private arrangement, other than overseas students, or who otherwise have regular contact with the student.
