

Director's Note

This experience of directing Aladdin Jr here at Coomera Anglican College is certainly the highlight of my career as an educator of young people!! People often scratch their heads and wonder why one would willingly commit to endless hours over months of intense rehearsal and organisation for a school musical production. I can tell you why. It's because working with such incredibly talented, highly motivated, enthusiastic students is truly inspirational.

We have all shared such a rewarding journey as we have worked relentlessly on bringing to our audiences a quality production which showcases the amazing talents of the students of Coomera Anglican College, from Years 3-12. Every single student has given their absolute best, whether it is their impressive skills in dancing, singing, acting, organisation, motivation or simply their friendly energetic manner. Together, the cast and crew have been inspiring. I couldn't possibly ask for a more cohesive, inclusive, dedicated group of young people. To the cast and crew, you have my utmost gratitude and admiration. It has been an absolute pleasure to work with you all.

Of course this production could not have been a success without the tireless work and commitment of so many staff and parents. From Kerry-Anne Jolley and Liz Brown's exquisite costumes to the brilliant melodies of our singers and music students guided by Liz Smith and the Music department, I have been treated to such an incredible support team. Liz Hampson's Art department has also committed many hours to add brilliant colour to our stage. Finally, I certainly couldn't have achieved this dream nor 'survived' without my efficient and reliable assistant, Cheryl-Lynn Hardy. So many staff, students and parents have generously donated their time to support both the cast and staff of the production. Again, you have my heartfelt thanks.

I sincerely hope that you all enjoy this animated and charming performance of Disney's Aladdin Jr. This production has allowed us all to step outside our comfort zone, be challenged and explore our full potential to entertain and engage audiences, and most of all, to have so much fun!

Kirsty Terry - Director and Producer

Thank You to our sponsors

A final thank you

A production of this magnitude does not merely just happen without the hard work and dedication of so many people. With sincere thanks, I wish to express my genuine gratitude to all the College families who so generously contributed to our show! And finally, to Dr Sly who said "yes"!

Aladdin Jr: Synopsis

Salam! And a thousand more greetings to you, worthy travellers! Might I interest you in a tale? It is a tale of mystery, enchantment and an unexpected love. It all begins in the grand city of Agrabah, where adventure and intrigue are status quo. Our story follows the adventures of a brave, lucky and lovable street-rat, by the name of Aladdin, who falls for Princess Jasmine, future ruler of Agrabah. Aladdin gets into trouble with the law, specifically the secretive and scheming Royal Vizier, Jafar, and his henchmen, who order Aladdin locked up. But in Agrabah, nothing is as it seems, and a dusty old lamp may just change Aladdin's life forever. Will he be reunited with his love? And what will happen when Aladdin gets in the way of Jafar's villainous plans?

Coomera Anglican College's production of Disney's Aladdin Jr. is sure to entice!
