UCAT Verbal Reasoning: Advanced Skills Masterclass

15 February

As competition for medical and dental degrees continues to intensify, the UCAT has become a critical tool for universities to manage large applicant pools to shortlist candidates suitable for interview. As more applicants are now able to achieve very high scores in sections such as Quantitative Reasoning and Decision Making through relatively shorter-term practice, Verbal Reasoning is increasingly emerging as a key differentiator.

Future Doctors Australia - A 4 Day Program for ages 14 to 18 - Limited Spots Left!

16-19 April - Limited Spots Left

9-12 July

Gaining medical work experience is essential for young people considering a medical career. It provides insight into the field, helps develop skills and attributes, and provides networking opportunities. However, obtaining medical work experience can be challenging due to various restrictions such as limited opportunities, safety concerns, and confidentiality issues.

That's why NIE has developed the "Future Doctors Australia" program. This engaging and high-impact 4-day program provides young people with a unique opportunity to gain medical work experience in a safe and structured environment. Participants will have the opportunity to spend time with current junior and senior medical students. They will also have the rare opportunity to spend time with more senior clinicians and various medical specialists. You will learn about clinical specialist's relevant fields of work, ask them questions, and learn some hands-on skills from them.

What You Need To Know About Your Rights as a Casual Employee

There are several different types of employment arrangements under Australia's workplace laws. One of the most common types that students work under is casual employment. Casual jobs are defined as jobs that usually:

- are short-term or temporary
- involve irregular hours
- aren't guaranteed to be ongoing
- provide extra hourly rate as they don't provide paid holiday leave or sick leave.

Generally speaking, casual employees are employed on an hourly, daily or weekly basis without any commitment – from the employee or the employer – that the job is permanent or guaranteed.
