University of Sydney Academic Excellence Scheme

The Academic Excellence Scheme recognises high performance in English and mathematics by applying adjustment factors to boost your selection rank. Depending on the course you have applied for and whether you achieved a Band 5, 6 or E4 in high-level English or mathematics in the NSW HSC (or equivalent scores in other Australian Year 12 qualifications and the IB), you can have an adjustment of up to five points added to your ATAR or equivalent IB score, to raise your selection rank for an eligible course. Find out more below.

Living and Studying in Sydney in 2027 - Residential Applications Opening Soon

Most undergraduates reside in the Heritage (Main) Building, built in 1926. Here, female students undertaking their first degrees enjoy a space that is calming and inspiring, lending itself to academic achievement and the forging of lifelong friendships. Residents join us from all over Australia and the world as domestic, international and exchange students. Our tradition of being a home away from home for women from regional Australia remains strong today.

University of Sydney - Open Academy's Rising Stars at the Con

The Rising Stars Performance Platform is a unique opportunity for school aged students to showcase their musical prowess and practice their performance technique. These one-hour public concerts are presented weekly by the students during the semester and are held at 11am, 2pm, and 3pm in the auditoriums of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music each week.

The concerts are open to the public and are free to attend.

If you'd like to hear some talented young performers or inspire a child who is learning music, we'd love to see you there!

The differences between high school and tertiary education

The prospect of finishing high school and starting tertiary education is a daunting one for many students. You're forced to leave the friends, teachers and surroundings you have spent years with in exchange for a whole new environment. Although this can be a little overwhelming, it can also be an exciting and rewarding time — and, after the stress of Year 12, a welcome change for many. To give you an idea of what to expect in this transition, we've put together a list of differences between high school and tertiary education.

ACFA - Cabinet Making Apprenticeships

Fee-Free Apprenticeship Training in Cabinet and Furniture Making
ACFA is the largest private RTO for cabinet making in NSW and delivers our nationally recognised qualifications via our workplace-based training model across NSW as part of the Smart and Skilled Program. What makes ACFA stand out is our commitment to one-on-one, hands-on training provided by our Industry-Specialised Trainers. These trainers not only customise training plans to match each apprentice's own learning style but also work flexibly to accommodate the employer's schedule. Our trainers cover the entire NSW region, eliminating the need for apprentices to travel or to be released for block training, saving valuable time and money. This ensures that apprentices receive instruction on the very tools and machinery they work with day in and day out.

Studying high school physics and maths might be tough at times – but the applications in renewable energy engineering are literally world-changing.

Engineering the Future: AI Evolving

1 April

Artificial Intelligence is no longer an emerging technology - it is an engineered system actively reshaping how societies operate, produce, and grow.

Today, engineers are not just building smarter tools; they are designing the foundations of AI-driven infrastructure - from autonomous systems and large-scale data platforms to intelligent networks that adapt, optimise, and learn in real time.

As AI moves from experimentation to integration, the questions are no longer if it will change the world, but how those changes will unfold - economically, socially, and systemically. What does it mean when intelligence becomes embedded in our energy grids, transport systems, supply chains, workplaces, and cities? What new capabilities are being created - and what second-order effects follow?

Subject Selection with ADHD: Making Confident Choices in Year 10
Before booking individual appointments or trying to piece this together alone, spend 90 minutes with a Careers Practitioner and an Organisational Psychologist for $25 and get clear, practical guidance you can actually use.

This webinar is designed for parents of students with ADHD in Year 9–10 who want to make subject choices that support motivation, confidence, and wellbeing — without closing doors later on.

We'll help you understand how ADHD can affect learning, workload, and engagement, and how to choose subjects that work with your teen's strengths and capacity — not against them.

2026 - Year 12 & EARLY ENTRY - With ADHD - Webinar

28 May

Year 12 with ADHD can feel overwhelming — for students and parents. Planning is not an easy feat for students with ADHD and the admin load can be heavy in managing so much information and application processes. So much advice. So many opinions. So little clarity. We try and synthesise and summarise the Early Entry experience, what to do and how to plan ahead.

You'll leave with planning strategies and a clearer idea of how it all works — without the panic or pressure.
