

Privacy Policy

Policy Aim:	Moreton Bay College and Moreton Bay Boys' College are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act. This statement outlines the privacy policy of the Colleges and describes how the Colleges use and manage personal information provided to or collected by both entities.
Scope and Responsibilities:	The policy applies to board members, employers, employees, volunteers, parents/guardians, students, contractors, and people visiting either College site; and describes the type of information the Colleges collect, how the information is handled, how and to whom the information is disclosed, and how the information may be accessed.
Board Approval:	Required
Background information:	The Colleges will use personal information that they collect for the primary purpose of providing educational services, of the highest order, to the students of the Colleges, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection. The Colleges may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to the Colleges operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing environments of Moreton Bay Colleges. In relation to personal information of students and parents, the Colleges primary purpose of collection is to enable both Colleges to provide an appropriate education for each student. This includes satisfying both the needs of parents and the needs of the students throughout the whole period that the students are enrolled at the respective College. Since 1 July 2011, Moreton Bay College and Moreton Bay Boys' College have amalgamated. Although both Colleges remain separate legal entities, personal information gathered by one College may be passed on to the other College in certain circumstances.
Policy:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Exception in relation to employee records</li> </ul> Under the Privacy Act, the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record held by the employing entity. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to the Colleges treatment of an employee record, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the College and an employee.

• Policy

This Privacy Policy sets out how the Colleges manage personal information provided to, or collected by, them.

The Colleges are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act.

The Colleges may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to the Colleges operations and practices, and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kinds of personal information do the Colleges collect and how do the Colleges collect it?

The type of information the Colleges collect and hold includes, but is not limited to, personal information, which may include health and other sensitive information about:

- students and parents and/or guardians (before, during and after the course of a student's enrolment at the respective College);
- job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors; and
- other people who come into contact with the Colleges.

Personal information you provide

The Colleges will generally collect personal information about an individual, by way of forms filled out by parents or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasion people other than parents and students provide personal information.

Personal information provided by other people

In some circumstances the Colleges may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party; for example, a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

How will the Colleges use the personal information you provide?

The Colleges will use the personal information they collect from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Students and Parents

In relation to personal information of students and parents, the Colleges primary purpose of collection is to enable the Colleges to provide appropriate schooling for the students. This includes satisfying the needs of parents, the needs of the students and the needs of the Colleges throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the College.

The purposes for which the Colleges use personal information of students and parents include:

- keeping parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines;
- administering the day-to-day runnings of the Colleges;
- looking after students' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- seeking donations and marketing for the Colleges;
- satisfying the Colleges legal obligations to allow the Colleges to discharge their duty of care; and
- recovering any outstanding fees owed to the College.

In some cases where the College requests personal information about a student or parent, if the information requested is not provided, the College may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student, or permit the student to take part in a particular activity.

Job applicants, Staff Members and Contractors

In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, the Colleges primary purpose of collection is to assess and, if successful, to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor.

The purposes for which the Colleges use personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- administering the individual's employment or contract;
- for insurance purposes;
- seeking donations and marketing for the Colleges; and
- satisfying the Colleges legal obligations; for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers

The Colleges also obtain personal information about volunteers, who assist the Colleges in their functions or conduct associated activities; such as alumni associations, to enable the Colleges and the volunteers to work together.

Privacy Policy

Marketing and fundraising

The Colleges treat marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the Colleges as an important part of ensuring that the Colleges continue to provide a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by the Colleges may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the Colleges fundraising; for example, the Colleges Foundation or alumni organisations or, on occasions, external fundraising organisations.

Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider College communities may, from time to time, receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

To whom might the Colleges disclose personal information?

The Colleges may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual to:

- another school;
- government departments;
- medical practitioners;
- people providing services to the Colleges, including specialist visiting teachers, lawyers, counsellors and sports coaches;
- recipients of College publications, such as newsletters and magazines;
- parents;
- third parties such as debt collection agencies, for the purposes of recovering any outstanding fees owed to the College;
- anyone you authorise the College to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom the Colleges are required to disclose the information by law.

Sending information overseas

The Colleges may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients; for instance, when storing personal information with 'cloud' service providers which are situated outside Australia, or to facilitate a school exchange. However, the Colleges will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied); or
- otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

Privacy Policy

Sensitive information

In referring to sensitive information, the Colleges mean: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices, criminal record, health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided; or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

Management and security of personal information

The Colleges staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals. The Colleges have in place steps to protect the personal information the Colleges hold, from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods; including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Access and correction of personal information

Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act, an individual has the right to obtain access to any personal information which the Colleges hold about them, and to advise the Colleges of any perceived inaccuracy. Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their parents, but older students may seek access and correction themselves.

There are some exceptions to these rights set out in the applicable legislation.

To make a request to access or update any personal information either College holds about you or your child, please contact the College Principal in writing. The Colleges may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. The Colleges may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, the Colleges will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

Consent and rights of access to the personal information of students

The Colleges respect every parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education. Generally, the Colleges will

	refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student's parents. The Colleges will treat consent given by parents as consent given on behalf of the student, and notice to parents will act as notice given to the student. As mentioned above, parents may seek access to personal information held by the Colleges about them or their child by contacting the Principal; however, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the Colleges duty of care to the student. The Colleges may, at their discretion, on the request of a student, grant that student access to information held by the respective College about them, or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances so warranted. Enquiries and complaints If further information is required about the way the Colleges manage the personal information it holds, or in the case of a complaint that the Colleges have breached the Australian Privacy Principles, the Principal should be contacted. The College will investigate any complaint and will notify the complainant of the making of a decision in relation to the complaint as soon as is practicable.
